But this mini social revolution soon brings her fierce enemies: she invites the hostility of the town's less prosperous shopkeepers and also crosses Mrs. Gamart (Patricia Clarkson) Harborough's vengeful, embittered alpha female who is herself a wannabe doyenne of the local arts scene. When Florence refuses to bend to Gamart's will, they begin a struggle not just for the bookshop but for the very heart and soul of the town.

Genre: Thriller

Director: Chris Smith

Status: Completed

Synopsis: Law student and all round good guy, Harper, suspects that his scheming step-father, Vincent, is responsible for the car crash that sent his mother into a coma. Drowning his sorrows one evening in a seedy L.A whiskey bar, Harper is interrupted by a tough looking redneck called Johnny Ray who offers to "take care" of his step-dad for the cool sum of US$20,000. Angry, intent on revenge and fuelled by alcohol, Harper agrees to the deal and spends the rest of his evening downing shots with Johnny Ray.

The next morning, Harper awakes to the mother of all hangovers with hazy memory of the previous night's events. Answering a knock at the front door, he is surprised to find Johnny Ray and his beautiful but distant girlfriend, Cherry, ready and waiting to drive to Vegas to kill Vincent. Harper's claims that he was drunk and didn't know what he was doing mean nothing to Johnny Ray who is more threatening than ever in the cold light of day. Harper quickly realises that there is no easy way out; if he wants to survive this, he has no choice but to go along with the plan.

What follows is a tense and deftly constructed noir thriller in which Harper's story takes an unexpected detour, presenting the audience with two alternate versions of events with two very different outcomes. Did Harper really want to kill his step father and which road did he actually take?

Synopsis: In 1916, Maud Gonne is exiled to France with her twenty-one-year-old French daughter, Iseult, and her twelve-year-old Irish son, Sean. Disillusioned and trapped in a war she sees as politically pointless; her mood is transformed by news of rebellion in Dublin. The execution of her estranged, brutal husband, John MacBride, triggers her desire to return to Ireland and reclaim her former status. Hampered initially by the British military, she is visited by W.B. Yeats with a proposal, for the third time in their long romance, of marriage. More excited by politics than love, Maud refuses, and Yeats proposes instead to Iseult. The film then becomes an emotionally troubled journey, travelling through France, England and Ireland, tangled in an artistic, creatively explosive period, the chaos of the First World War and the Irish revolution, a journey that changes Maud's life forever.

Hampstead

Cast: Diane Keaton, Brendan Gleeson

Genre: Social issues

Director: Joel Hopkins

Status: Pre-Production

Synopsis: Hampstead Village, London. Famous for its beautiful and much-loved Heath – a piece of quiet countryside in a vast metropolis. Living on the edge of the Heath is American widow, Emily Walters (Diane Keaton), who can't quite focus on the things that need attention, like her lovely old apartment, her finances and even her son. Despite encouragement from her close friend Fiona, she doesn't want to admit that she's drifting through life without much thought to her future. One day while looking out across the Heath from her attic window, Emily spies a ramshackle hut, which appears to be inhabited by an unkempt man. She witnesses him being attacked by a group of professional thugs. Shocked, she calls the police and watches, through her binoculars, as help arrives. The next day she ventures into the woods in search of the man.

Donald Horner (Brendan Gleeson) has lived quietly and harmoniously on the edge of the Heath for 17 years but now his lifestyle is under threat - his home is the target of property developers who've started using heavy-handed tactics to remove him. When Emily introduces herself, he is naturally suspicious and politely thanks her but rebuffs her attention. Despite his gruff exterior, there is something gentle and alluring about Donald and when Emily discovers that Fiona is leading a community initiative in support of the developers, she bravely steps up to take Donald's side in the escalating battle, determined to defend the emotional and physical livelihood of this quiet but unusual man - who has grown to trust her and who - despite his situation, just might be the man to sweep her off her feet.

Inspired by a true story, Hampstead is a charming and funny life-affirming tale about how love can be found in the most unexpected places and proves once and for all that age is no barrier to second chances.

Director: Matthew Millan

Status: Completed

Synopsis: Libya, 2011. Amidst the bloody revolution to overthrow the tyrant Moammar Gaddafi, a defiant music scene emerges from the dust of war. After 42 years of silence, Benghazi resounds with a melodic fury that manifests in a staggering variety of musical genres. The music is astounding in its diversity – traditional folk, hip-hop, heavy metal, rock, blues, and even country. This film introduces the musicians who emerge, and follows them as they stand shoulder-to-shoulder, guitar to rifle, alongside rebel fighters. After months of brutal war, Gaddafi's death paves the way for the musicians to celebrate their victory with a triumphant music festival. Yet when the tyrant falls, he shatters into a thousand pieces, as shadowy elements suddenly emerge to halt the festival. Victory soon descends into conflict and chaos as Libya descends into the abyss of civil war. The musicians once again retreat to their basements, instruments in hand, as their very right to play is threatened by new forces. Will the music scene thrive once again, or will it remain mired in post-revolutionary blues?

Tommy's Honour

Cast: Peter Mullan, Jack Lowden , Ophelia Lovibond, Sam Neill

Genre: Drama

Director: Jason Connery

Status: Completed

Synopsis: In every generation, a torch passes from father to son. And that timeless dynamic is the beating heart of Tommy's Honour – an intimate, powerfully moving tale of the real-life founders of the modern game of golf. Set in St. Andrews, Scotland during the hidebound Victorian era, the story opens in 1866 as 15-year-old Tommy Morris (Jack Lowden) heads to the links with his father, Tom Morris (Peter Mullan). Already a legend, "Old Tom" is greens-keeper for the Royal & Ancient golf club, where he established the standard of 18 holes per round; as well as the town's club- and ball-maker; and thrice winner of the first major golf tournament, the Open Championship – which he founded in 1860. Tom Morris has secured his place in the history of the ancient game. But Tommy will soon outshine him, retiring the Open's prize Championship Belt while still in his teens (by winning it three times in a row), and, as the "dashing young man of golf," drawing flocks of spectators to the sport and becoming its first touring pro.

Despite their shared passion, father and son repeatedly clash over the unwritten rules of social class, culminating in Tommy's marriage to a woman of lower standing with a shameful secret in her past. Tommy's beloved wife Meg (Ophelia Lovibond) figures in this true story's climax, as Tom makes a fatal misjudgement that strips Tommy of everything he holds dear. From the ashes of that fateful choice, Old Tom rises to a mission that carries him through the final decades of his life: Honouring Tommy.

Whitney Houston

Genre: Documentary
 Director: Kevin Macdonald
 Status: Production

Synopsis: With over 200 million album sales worldwide, and remaining the only artist to chart seven consecutive US No. 1's, Whitney Houston was the voice of a generation. Coming from an esteemed lineage of singers, Whitney was destined to be plucked from her gospel-singing roots to rule the world stage. She inspired a generation of singers from Mariah Carey to Beyoncé and her unforgettable performance of The Star-Spangled Banner unlocked an anthem that had for so long been dismissed by many black artists.

But all these achievements have become a footnote to a story of addiction and self-destruction. With salacious stories filling the columns of tabloid papers and magazines, Whitney had the voice of an angel onstage, but was being torn apart by her demons offstage.

Directed by Academy Award-winning filmmaker Kevin Macdonald (Marley, Touching the Void) and from two-time Academy Award-winning producer Simon Chinn (Man on Wire, Searching for Sugar Man), the film will for the first time, give audiences an unprecedented and unique look into Whitney's life. This will be an unflinching and honest portrait of a rare talent told by those closest to her.

Made with full access to her family and collaborators, the film will showcase exclusive audio and never-before-seen video archive from her time as a recording artist and performer. By casting her story and her work in a new and revealing light, WHITNEY HOUSTON will reassess the life and legacy of one of music's biggest stars.
