10 Swords & The Moon

Cast: Martina Laird, Seth Somers, Bridgitta Roy, Hannah Morley
Genre: Female director
Director: Fenella Greenfield
Status: Completed

Synopsis: When Kal meets Molly it feels like love at first sight. Until he suspects it's not love that's binding them, it's grief. Acclaimed artist Sukhminder Kaur hires Kal to write the catalogue copy for her new exhibition. She likes his cynicism and admires his meticulous and dispassionate style. She's photographing herself in tableaux recreating the Tarot's darkest cards. Death. The Hanged Man. The Devil. The Tower. As Kal is sucked into Molly's plight he starts to unravel and believe someone or something is scripting his life.

The Canterville Ghost

Cast: Stephen Fry, Hugh Laurie, Freddie Highmore, Imelda Staunton, Miranda Hart, Toby Jones

Genre: Animation

Director: Kim Burdon

Status: Production

Synopsis: For 300 years, Sir Simon Canterville has been haunting his ancestral home, Canterville Chase, and loving it! But everything changes when an American family buys the estate and moves in. The family is unimpressed with Sir Simon's ghostly antics and does not find him scary at all... they actually find him to be a bit of a nuisance. It is not long before the family's young twin boys are scaring him out of his wits, chasing him through the corridors of Canterville, exhausting and weakening his spirit. Sir Simon becomes discouraged and crestfallen from the boys' pranks, but becomes hopeful when accompanied by the family's teenage daughter to embark on the journey to find what caused his 300 year-old curse. Sir Simon travels with Virigina through his past and into a magical garden where he comes face-to-face with his nemesis, the Grim Reaper, who challenges him to Sir Simon in a duel to release him from the curse. But if Sir Simon loses, he and Virigina will be trapped in the garden for all eternity. The Canterville Ghost is a warm-hearted adaptation of the literary classic tale, a love-story and a comedy with a spooky edge, a "very animated Oscar Wilde".

Synopsis: Set in the Caribbean, Deep Fear is an intense and visceral survival thriller with furious action throughout. Madalina Ghenea stars as Naomi, an accomplished round-the-world yachtswoman, who sets out on a solo trip to meet her boyfriend, Jackson - played by Ed Westwick - in Grenada. Her tranquil three-day sail aboard 47-foot yacht 'The Serenity' takes an unexpectedly dark turn when a storm forces her off the plotted course.

Circumnavigating an uninhabited reef-fringed island, she responds to a distress signal to aid a sinking vessel where she finds three survivors clinging to the shattered remains of a boat. Events soon take a malevolent twist when it transpires the survivors are drug traffickers, who force Naomi to dive down into the hull of the sunken wreck to retrieve 850 kilos of cocaine. The plan is thwarted when Naomi finds herself surrounded by a frenzy of man-eating great white sharks - lured by the dead bodies in the wreck. In a tense and deadly undersea battle, Naomi must use her wits, skills and determination to survive.

Synopsis: Mia, a plucky barmaid, has her life thrown into chaos when a mysterious woman turns up at her workplace, on the run from a group of violent thugs and unable to speak English. Marshanda - a legendary female Pirate warrior - is transported from ancient China onto the streets of modern London. Unable to speak English, she runs into Mia, a cautious barmaid, who feels compelled to help her. Marshanda's clearly on the run - from someone or something - but struggles to share her story. It isn't long before a group of thugs, led by an eerily polite boss, Walsh, arrives at the bar. They want Marshanda and Walsh will use any means to get her. However, he's underestimated his opponent. In a torrent of heart stopping action, we're taken deep within a network of secret tunnels under the streets of London and into a world of folklore, villainy and martial arts.

Emily

Cast: Emma Mackey, Emily Beecham, Joe Alwyn, Fionn Whitehead
 Genre: Romance
 Director: Frances O'Connor
 Status: Completed

Synopsis: Emily (Emma Mackey) wears a mask. The world tells her she must be quiet, obedient, dutiful. She certainly must neither speak her mind nor share her thoughts, feelings, and dreams. Emily though, is wildly alive. She rages with emotion, has a voice yearning to be heard, and her mind is overwhelmed by imagination. She has no interest in staying silent and doing what others want. And Emily is about to show you why. Debut filmmaker Frances O'Connor finds her own voice, immersing you in Emily Brontë's hidden world: Emily is a rebel and misfit, a young woman daring to form herself, to embrace her true nature...to hell with the consequences. We share the innermost relationships that inspired Emily. They are revelations of untold truths - her raw, passionate sisterhood for Charlotte (Emily Beecham) and Anne; her first aching, forbidden love for Weightman (Joe Alwyn) and her care for her maverick brother (Fionn Whitehead) whom she idolises. Who was this young woman whose heart burned with such love and life, and who wrote literature's timeless and searing masterpiece, Wuthering Heights? EMILY shouts directly to women today: not to hide behind a mask, but to challenge themselves - find their authentic voice, seize humanity, and unleash their own potential.

Synopsis: In blood-soaked Tudor England, Katherine Parr, the sixth and last wife of King Henry VIII, is named Regent while tyrant Henry is fighting overseas. Katherine has done everything she can to push for a new future based on her radical Protestant beliefs. When an increasingly ailing and paranoid King returns, he turns his fury on the radicals, charging Katherine's childhood friend with treason and burns her at the stake. Horrified and grieving, but forced to deny it, Katherine finds herself fighting for her own survival. Conspiracy reverberates through the palace. Everyone holds their breath - for the queen to slip up, for Henry to take her head like wives before. With the hope for a future free of tyranny at risk, will Katherine submit to the inevitable for the sake of King and country?

Synopsis: Nicholas (O'Shea) and Isabel (Skelly) are made for each other, but fate does not always choose the easiest path to true love. As destiny pulls them together, so do family, passion, and faith drive them apart. Nicholas' father, William (Brosnan), comes home one day to shatter his family's quiet, modest life. He tells them that in a moment of divine intervention, God has instructed him to dedicate his life to painting. He quits his job and sets off for the coast, leaving his shellshocked wife and son to fend for themselves. Meanwhile Isabel and her family live a charmed existence on a nearby small neighbouring island, their house full of music and poetry. When tragedy strikes and her brother suffers a terrible accident, the music stops, and Isabel's parents (Bonham Carter, Byrne) decide in their grief to send Isabel to a convent school on the mainland. The young lovers embark on their own individual journeys of heartache and misplaced love, before fate contrives to pull the threads off their lives together. When they meet, it will be like a miracle.

Synopsis: Ten year old Mary O'Hara is devastated when her grandmother, Emer, is admitted to hospital. She visits her regularly and it is after one such visit that she meets Tansey, a new neighbour. Tansey is friendly & talkative and Mary is enthralled, especially when she says she has an urgent message for Mary's granny... When Mary's mother hears that her daughter has made a new friend she is curious to meet this young woman who has the same distinctive name as her own grandmother. Slowly, pieces of the jigsaw fit together and they realise with shock that Tansey is in fact...a (very friendly) ghost! Brought together in the most surreal of situations, Mary and her mother, along with Tansey, head to the hospital to collect Emer. From there, four generations of women head off on one last glorious, spectacular road trip together. Conversation flows as they take a trip down memory lane, preparing themselves for final goodbyes but warm in the knowledge that life is most definitely amazing, quite often truly mysterious and - if you're lucky - full of love.

I Get Knocked Down

Cast: Dunstan Bruce
Genre: Documentary
Director: Sophie Robinson
Status: Completed

Synopsis: Dunstan Bruce is 59 and he's struggling with the fact that the world seems to be going to hell in a handcart. He's wondering where did it all go wrong? For him. For humanity. Twenty years after his fall from grace, the former frontman of the anarchist band Chumbawamba is angry and frustrated. But how does a middle-aged, retired radical, who now feels invisible get back up again? In this punk version of Dickens' 'A Christmas Carol' Dunstan is visited by the antagonistic ghost of his anarchist past. It is his alter ego, 'Babyhead' who forces him to question his own life, sending him on a search for his long-lost anarchist mojo. This is the untold and remarkable story of Chumbawamba and Dunstan's personal redemptive voyage as well as a call to arms to those who think activism is best undertaken by someone else. An extraordinary, inspiring film for our times.

Synopsis: Thriller writer Ben, struggling for inspiration, retreats to an isolated rural cabin to start on his latest novel and to escape the growing tension with his boyfriend Jamie. Working late into the night, he wakes to find a wounded man in the cabin, claiming to be a hunter whose car had broken down nearby. Intrigued and attracted to the mysterious and handsome intruder Ben decides to secretly use him as inspiration as the antagonist for his new book: a savage murder believed to have taken place in the very cabin he has rented. As the man begins to help him enact increasingly dangerous and detailed scenarios for the story's captive protagonist, Ben becomes aroused by the prospects, but finds himself rebuffed by a homophobic slur. Searching the man's car, he uncovers stolen property belonging to several other young men hinting he may be a serial killer, a perfect twist for Ben's novel. Discovering his own car sabotaged, and unable to escape, Ben enters a lethal game of cat and mouse. But it's only when the fate of Ben's boyfriend Jamie is revealed that Ben's dark, erotic, fantasy becomes a stark, inescapable, reality.

Genre: Drama

Director: Jessica Hobbs

Status: Pre-Production

Synopsis: A blazing summer in post-war England. Robert is 16, the shy, nature loving son of a miner. Before he follows his father down the pit, he sets out to explore the countryside and see a little more of the world. He gets as far as Dulcie, a hard drinking, foul-mouthed, bohemian recluse several times his age. Under her eccentric tutelage, his life opens up to rich food, poetry, girls and the possibility that there may be more to living than duty and mining. But while Dulcie's cottage and garden by the sea are idyllic, this place holds a tragic secret about Dulcie's great love. When Robert discovers the truth, his brave and tender friendship compels Dulcie to open her own heart and re-engage with the world. Their encounter is a riotous clash of experience, personality and perspective which will leave them both forever changed.

A Story Of Bones

Genre: Documentary
 Director: Joseph Curran
 Status: Completed

Synopsis: As the Chief Environmental Officer for Saint Helena's troubled £285m ($360m) airport project, Annina Van Neel learned of the island's most terrible atrocity – an unmarked mass burial ground of an estimated 9,000 formerly enslaved Africans in Rupert's Valley. It is one of the most significant traces of the transatlantic slave trade still on earth.

Haunted by this historical injustice, Annina now fights alongside renowned African American preservationist Peggy King Jorde and a group of disenfranchised islanders – many of them descendants of the formerly enslaved – for the proper memorialisation of these forgotten victims. The resistance they face exposes disturbing truths about the UK's colonial past and present.

Shocked, Jonathan abandons the elegant family home in leafy Stratford Upon Avon and drives his ancient Jaguar XK150 to the family villa in Portugal. Enter Hope, their young daughter, who can't get any sense from her mother. Hope abandons her studies and pursues her father to find out what's gone wrong. While in Portugal, she finds the truth is more complicated and in some ways unexpected and learns a life-lesson in the process. The truth is clear though, her parents still love each other and she's determined to re-unite them. She enlists the help of both her half-sister Amelia, a human rights lawyer and their lovely Portuguese housekeeper, Gabriella. It takes a lot of guile, but they manage to rescue the marriage even though Luke turns up to try and stop it.
