

EFM 2022 Co-Pro Market – 4 UK producers taking part

Participants Programme:

The opportunity is for international producers actively looking for projects to co-produce and who want to take meetings with the projects that are officially selected for the Berlinale Co-Production Market.

Find out more:

<https://www.efm-berlinale.de/en/copro-market/programme/programme.html>

UK Participants bios:

- Cassandra Sigsgaard/Jeva Films

Cassandra has a passion for original stories by visionary filmmakers who challenge preconceptions. Past productions include the Blaine brothers' award-winning debut, NINA FOREVER, she is currently in prep on a UK-Germany co-production starring Lesley Manville, and up next are films with Oscar nominated director Marjane Satrapi, and Emmy-winning writer/director Richie Mehta.

- Shantelle Rochester/Ida Rose

With over 15 years in the industry Shantelle has gained extensive experience with budgets, business and financial structures and offers these services at Ida Rose where they are committed to help shape the future by working with diverse creatives; especially writers, directors, producers and actresses all over the globe. She leads a female diverse team and loves working with people who share the company's values in bringing new and great stories to audiences.

- James Bowsher/Good Chaos

James Bowsher is the in house producer at Good Chaos. He has worked with company CEO Mike Goodridge on a range of productions by filmmakers such as Jessica Hausner and Hafsteinn Gunnar Sigurosson. James is also a recent graduate of the NFTS MA producing course.

- Thembisa Cochrane/Caspian Films

Thembisa is the co-founder of Caspian Films where she produced THE COLOUR ROOM (2021), released theatrically in the UK by Sky Cinema, and US AMONG THE STONES (BFI London Film Festival 2019). Previous credits include the international co-production THE HARVESTERS (Cannes 2018) and executive roles at Spier Films (THE SALVATION, OF GOOD REPORT).